IN MEMORY OF JAMES HANSEN
#1 GIANTS FAN
ODDFELLOWS
CALIFORNIA #1

SAN FRANCISCO – On Sunday, June 1st over 120 Odd Fellows, Family and Friends gathered at Pac Bell Park to mark the one year anniversary of the passing of James P. Hansen, a member of California Lodge #1. Jim touched many people during his short time here on this earth, and he continues to do so now.

Hometown Christmas

Festival Of Trees
2003

Festival of Trees is a winter wonderland with magical array of decorated Christmas trees, lights, gingerbread village entertainment and children's activities. The event will be held December 5, 6 & 7, 2003 at the Morgan Hill Community Center. It includes a gala dinner/auction on Friday, December 5, a Music of Christmas Concert on Saturday, December 6 and tours of the gingerbread village and trees with children's activities during the weekend. There is also a silent auction throughout the event. For more information, go to www.rcskids.org. Special thanks to Media Arts and Thomas Kinkade who has provided an art piece and sponsorship of the event.

During the memorial service held for Jim last year, one member of California Lodge #1 was so touched, that he wanted to make sure that Jim was honored in some way.

Jim, was a die-hard Giants baseball fan and what better way to honor him, than with a plaque at Pac Bell Park. Brother Keith Fitzpatrick tried to obtain the plaque, only to find out that they were all sold out. Not to be daunted, (never under estimate the power of an Odd Fellow), Brother Fitzpatrick continued on his quest, and after many, many telephone calls, he was finally able to obtain a plaque in Jim's memory. The plaque, is right next to the Willie McCovy statue in McCovy Cove and I know that Jim is smiling from above!

Since then, the annual California Lodge #1 Golf Tournament was renamed the Jim Hansen Memorial Tournament, and proceeds from this tournament now go to the American Cancer Society. We were pleased to have Jim Shattuck from the American Cancer Society at the Pac Bell Ceremony to accept the check in the amount of $1,000 from Mike Dittleson, California Lodge #1 Past Noble Grand.
