

Conflict of Interest Policy
Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Mission Peak Lodge #114
Policy on Conflicts of Interest and Disclosure of Certain Interests

This conflict of interest policy is designed to help directors, officers, members and employees of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, Mission Peak Lodge #114 ("IOOF") to identify situations that present potential conflicts of interest and to provide IOOF with a procedure that, if observed, will allow a transaction to be treated as valid and binding even though an officer, or member has or may have a conflict of interest with respect to the transaction. In the event there is an inconsistency between the requirements and procedures prescribed herein and those in federal or state law, the law shall control. All capitalized terms are defined in Part 2 of this policy.

1. Conflict of Interest Defined. For purposes of this policy, the following circumstances shall be deemed to create Conflicts of Interest:

A. Outside Interests.

- (i) A Contract or Transaction between IOOF and a Responsible Person or Family Member.
- (ii) A Contract or Transaction between IOOF and an entity in which a Responsible Person or Family Member has a Material Financial Interest or of which such person is a director, officer, agent, partner, associate, trustee, personal representative, receiver, guardian, custodian, conservator, or other legal representative.

- (ii) has received, is receiving, or is seeking to receive a loan or grant, or to secure other financial commitments from IOOF;
- (iii) is a charitable organization;

under circumstances where it might be inferred that such action was intended to influence or possibly would influence the Responsible Person in the performance of his or her duties. This does not preclude the acceptance of items of nominal or insignificant value or entertainment of nominal or insignificant value that are not related to any particular transaction or activity of IOOF
